

Competencies for Regulatory Staff

Competency: Ageing Aircraft Systems

Description: The ability to assess an organisation's capability re their management of initial; continued airworthiness and training aspects of ageing aircraft systems.

Note: Elements are in italics.

Understanding

Understanding of what is meant by ageing aircraft systems and the implications for industry and the regulator in respect of initial, continued airworthiness and training of industry.

Understanding the safety risks and hazards associated with aircraft systems and equipment and the options required to mitigate these risks.

Guidance

Is able to provide expertise in Ageing Aircraft Systems for the development of OTARs and adherence to ICAO requirements.

Can provide a focal point for advice to other technical areas on issues involved with ageing aircraft.

Persons to whom this is likely to apply:

Those involved in airworthiness oversight.