

Competencies for Regulatory Staff

Competency: Charts

Description: The knowledge to be able to assess the service provided by organisations who are contracted to deliver a cartographic service to the Overseas Territories.

Note: Elements are in italics.

Understanding

Understands what is involved in providing an aeronautical chart service to the Overseas Territories and is familiar with the different charts that need to be provided and the means of promulgation.

Understands who the parties are providing the service and their roles and responsibilities.

Is fully conversant with the ICAO Annex 4, and the relevant OTARs and OTACs.

Is able to audit an organisation to ensure its procedures and documentation are compliant with requirements.

Guidance

Is able to provide expertise in Charts for development of OTARs/OTACs and adherence to ICAO requirements

Can provide a focal point for advice to other technical areas on the issues involved in regulation of charts.

Persons to whom this is likely to apply:

All those responsible for regulating Charts