

Regulatory Competencies

Additional Technical

Knowledge/Skills Competency: Dangerous Goods Regulation

Description: The knowledge to be able to identify 'dangerous goods' and the processes involved in their safe transportation.

Note: Elements are in italics.

Understanding

Is fully conversant with ICAO Annex 18 and the Technical instructions, the AN(OT)0 and Schedule 15, and the OTARs

Understands what constitutes dangerous goods and the ways in which they should be packed, marked and shipped and accompanied by suitable documentation

Understand who is involved in the transportation of Dangerous Goods and the responsibilities involved, including the responsibilities for the handling of dangerous goods emergencies

Is able to establish which dangerous goods are shipped, and audit the appropriate organisations to ensure that procedures and documentation are compliant with requirements, interface correctly and provide for safe transportation of dangerous goods.

Guidance

Is able to provide expertise in Safe Transport of Dangerous Goods to support development of OTARs and adherence to ICAO requirements

Can provide a focal point for advice to other technical areas on the issues involved in transportation of Dangerous Goods.

Persons to whom this is likely to apply:

All those responsible for Dangerous Goods regulation